Welcomed & Introductions

Principal's Report:

- Remembrance Day Assembly is tomorrow (November 10th.)
- December: The 15th will be the school winter concert- there will be an afternoon and an evening performance.
- An environmental focus of the school's right now is maintaining the forest area for the years to come.
- The field will be closing soon due to weather; the school may start up some lunchtime clubs to compensate for this loss of space.
- One wish coming from the staff right now is money for Ipads for the kindergarten classrooms.
- The Food Train Food Drive will take place again in December.
- January 17th & March 1st are the ArtStarts Performances this year. The PAC has made a commitment to help support the financial costs of these performances.

Treasurer's Update:

- The Halloween Dance earned us about $2400.
- The Gaming Account Summary Report has been submitted for this year.
- We continue to work on updating our banking signing authority.

Fun Lunch Report:

- The second round of ordering will be in December.

Upcoming Events:

- Pancake Breakfast for December: Kailee is planning this and will need volunteer support. We will need to touch base with Anklebyters regarding our preparation plans for the morning of the breakfast.

Fundraising:

- The Purdy's fundraiser is launched and well underway.
- We made about $1100 profit from Poinsettia sales this fall.
- The Variety Grant has been submitted.
- Art Card orders have now closed. It looked like a good ordering turn out.
- We would like to make a banner for future bottle drives and do more advertising in the future. Santina is looking into the cost of a banner.
- We brainstormed ways to get more families involved in PAC volunteering opportunities. We may draft a letter to families or advertise opportunities on a bulletin board at the next school event.

Parent Education:

- The Parent Education Grant has been approved. We are working in collaboration with View Royal to bring in a Science Ventures presentation for parents.

Other Business:

- We discussed Spirit Wear and whether it will be available this year. We also discussed whether or not we want to try out a new company this year.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:52 by Leanne Fleming.
